

Double Services Planned Today By Methodists

Two Easter worship services are planned for today at the First Methodist Church, El Prado and Manuel Aves., one at 9:15, the other at 11:50 a. m., according to the Rev. Clarence E. Miller.

Both services will be identical in the music presented, sermon preached and order of service. The adult choir, directed by Vernon Robinson and the Children's Choir, under direction of Mrs. Thomas Evans, will present special Easter music.

"Easter and the Human Need" will be the sermon delivered by Rev. Miller. The sermon deals with such questions as, "Can a historical event 2000 years ago have spiritual significance for us today?" "Is human need today basically physical or spiritual?" and "Is there power to be found in faith in the risen Christ to meet basic human needs today?"

Regular nursery and Sunday school classes will be held during each service for all children through the third grade. Children from the fourth grade and above are asked to attend the regular Easter services today.

Easter worship services will be held in Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, Marcolina and Arlington Aves., today at 9:30 and 11 a. m.

Sunday school will be under the direction of Mr. Carl Pisel, superintendent. Special Easter music will feature the program. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Irene Hoy, assisted at the organ by Mrs. Paul Findley, will sing special Easter music and assist in the morning worship service. The subject of the Easter sermon will be "The Power of Christ's Resurrection."

According to the announcement given by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Miller, the sermon will deal with the question of finding spiritual help to meet the needs of today, and how faith in the Risen Christ serves as an incentive to better living.

About 20 persons are expected to unite with the church at this service. There may even be more. Baptismal services will also be conducted for infants or for others who may wish to be baptized. Persons desiring to have infants baptized or any who wish to unite with the church and have not yet spoken to the pastor relative to the same may call Torrance 131 in order that proper arrangements may be made.

Seaside-Riviera Sewer Hearing Date Postponed

Hearing on an assessment for a newly-installed sewer in the Seaside Heights area was postponed until April 23 after residents of the area lodged protests on the method of assessment at the City Council meeting Wednesday night.

Written and verbal communications protested a flat rate method of assessing—a charge of $414 per parcel—as being unfair and unequitable to all residents. The sewer line benefits nearby vacant land, it was charged, and the cost has been added to the homeowners' bills.

City engineers said, however, that the method of charging is the same as had been utilized in other areas.

The hearing will start at 8 p. m. in the City Council chambers.

Soldier Doesn't Complain of Army Chow, But Sure Would Like Some Home Cooking

Editor, The Torrance Herald: After having been overseas one year and eating Army chow for the past 17 months (not that we're complaining) but after all that time, you sure can acquire a yearning for good old American food. Being from California, I could think of no better people to make this request to. We especially miss those home-baked goodies (such as cookies and fudge). Any personal consideration you might show toward this matter would show your sincerity and the sincerity of those people back home.

Respectfully and sincerely yours
